

Funny How Time Slips Away

Willie Nelson

♩ = 110

C F

Well, hel - lo there, — my it's been a long, long new love, I hope that he's do - in'
go now, — guess I'll see — you a -

C C

time. — "How'm I do - in'?" — fine. — Heard you told him that you'd round. — Don't know when tho', never,

F C

Oh, I guess that I'm do - in' fine. — It's been so love him till the end of time. — Now, that's the know when I'll be back in town. But re -

C7 F

long now — and it seems that it was on - ly yes - ter - same thing — that you told me, seems like just — the oth - er mem - ber — what I tell you, that in time — you're gon - na

D7 G7

day, — Gee, ain't it Fun - ny — how time slips a - day, — Gee, ain't it Fun - ny — how time slips a - pay, — And it's dur - pris - ing — how time slips a

1,2 C F C G7 3 C F C

way. — How's your way. —
way. — Got - ta