

The Weight

Robbie Robertson

$\text{♩} = 144$

G G/F# E-7/E G/D C

5 G B- C G

1 I pulled in - to Naz - a - reth, was fee - lin'bout half past dead.
 2 picked up and I went look - in' for a place to hide.
 3 Cra - zy Ches - ter fol lowed me and caught me in the fog.
 4 Get your Can - non - ball now to take me down the line.

9 G C G

I just need some - place where I can lay my head.____
 when I saw old Carmen and the devil walk - in' side by side.
 He said, "I will fix your rack if you'll take Jack my dog.____
 My bag is sinkin' low, and I do be - lieve it's time.____

13 B- C G

"Hey mis - ter can you tell me, where a man might find a bed?"
 So I said, "Hey, Car - men, let's go down__ town."
 I said, "Wait a min - ute, Chest - ter, you know I'm a peace - ful man."
 to get back to Miss Fan - ny, you know, she's the on - ly one

17 B- C G (Octaves)

He just grinned and shook__ my hand, No was all__ he said
 Car - men said, "I got - ta go, but my frind can stick. a - round."
 He said, "Boy, that's O - kay. Won't you feed him when. you can?"
 who sent me here with her re - gards for ev - 'ry one.

21 Chorus G D C G D C

Take a load off, Fan - ny. Take a load for free..

25 G D C D G

Take a load off, Fan - ny. and__ you put the load right on me.